To Whom It May Concern:

My husband, George Shamblin and I had the good fortune to use the services of GRANGER THAGARD & Associates for auctions of two properties we owned in Tuscaloosa, AL.

Because we were unfamiliar with the auction process, they took the time to explain everything in person and in writing to us until we were comfortable with it. We were very pleased with the professionalism, knowledge of particular market, and guidance related to our responsibilities in this process. Once we began, they took over and handled everything with skill and speed which was very much appreciated by us.

I would recommend these men and their services without hesitation.

Sincerely,

Jill D. Shamblin
